

Changing the AdPoint Home Screen from Classic to New

Article Title	Changing the AdPoint Home Screen from Classic to New
Category	How To
Audience	All AdPoint Users
Last Updated	2/4/26

Purpose

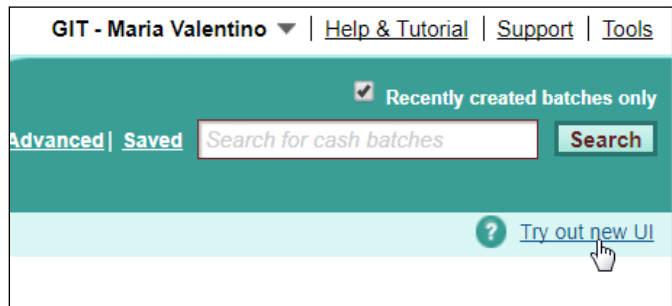

This document explains how to change from the Classic view to the New view for the AdPoint Home Screen.

Before You Begin

Reminder: The new AdPoint Home Screen will become the standard experience with the release of AdPoint Version 11 in January 2027.

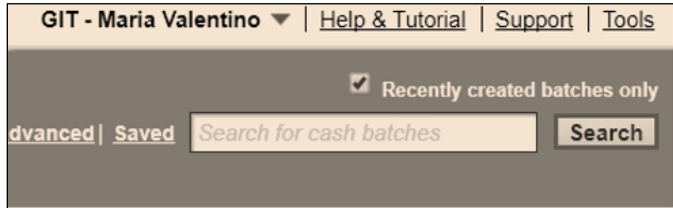

Steps

- 1) Go to the AdPoint Home Screen.
- 2) Click on the Try Out New UI link in the upper right-hand corner of the screen.

Expected Result

Once these steps are followed, the screen colors change from blue to sepia. The ability to create role-based dashboards is available through the New Dashboard button. A color key is also available.
